CODE OF CONDUCT

- Before and after a race meet has concluded (and therefore AIDKA rules of racing no longer apply), then Misconduct on the part of any of these persons will result in possible suspension or expulsion from the GSKC club – which will be decided by the GSKC committee.

SOCIAL MEDIA:

- GSKC encourages participation in online social media in a positive manner. The accessible nature of the internet, however, can lend itself to the posting of threatening and derogatory material in the heat of the moment. Once your thoughts and comments are published to the internet they are visible to the world and they are permanent. GSKC takes all cases of cyber bullying seriously and will treat online matters as it would 'real world' Bullying.
- Breaching the code of conduct or bringing the sport into disrepute online can lead to serious consequences, including tribunals, suspensions, and the cancellation of the offender's AIDKA licence.
- If you have questions about what constitutes acceptable content, please contact the AIDKA secretary at secretary@aidka.com.au for advice. Great Southern Kart Club remind all members you run by the AIDKA code of conduct at all AIDKA sanctioned events as well as Great Southern Kart Club.
